

simple meetings at Triple Creek Ranch

For over 25 years, Triple Creek Ranch has been the premier guest ranch destination for travelers who seek the thrill of adventure under Montana's big sky, while immersed in the luxury of our award-winning, intimate mountain retreat.

With the introduction of our Meadowlark simple meeting space, this experience can now include moments of inspiration, creativity and collaboration for your group. Today's retreats and incentive travel are no longer limited to stuffy boardrooms and big cities. Balance productive work sessions with outdoor adventures and leisurely meals. Elevate your meeting experience, and let the invigorating mountain air spur your organization to new heights.

Just 75 miles from Missoula International Airport (MSO), The Ranch is an oasis of luxury bordering one of the largest wilderness areas in the US. At our serene mountain hideaway, thrilling adventures and extraordinary culinary experiences will make your simple meeting spectacular.

Planning a simple meeting is made easy with our all-inclusive rates. Accommodations, meeting space, all meals and house beverages, and many adventure activities are included. Additional bespoke activities and events for your group can also be arranged with supplementary cost. The Ranch can welcome a maximum of 66 guests, with 25 private guest cabins that hold total of 33 king bed rooms. The Ranch can be made available for a private buyout during the months of January, February, March and November (excluding the Thanksgiving holiday). From May through October there is limited availability for smaller groups.

Meadowlark is an intimate building with just over 1,000 square feet of meeting space that can be organized into several configurations. The building includes a gracious facilitator accommodation with a large private bath, as well as a full kitchen. Contemporary audio visual equipment supports your presentation and connectivity efforts, while bucolic views from every window set the tone for productive exchanges in a relaxed setting.
